

Smart Device Activities

Claire Miziolek

Technology and Market Solutions Manager

Northeast Energy Efficiency Partnerships

Many “smart” products in ENERGY STAR—and Growing!

ENERGY STAR Connected Product Trends

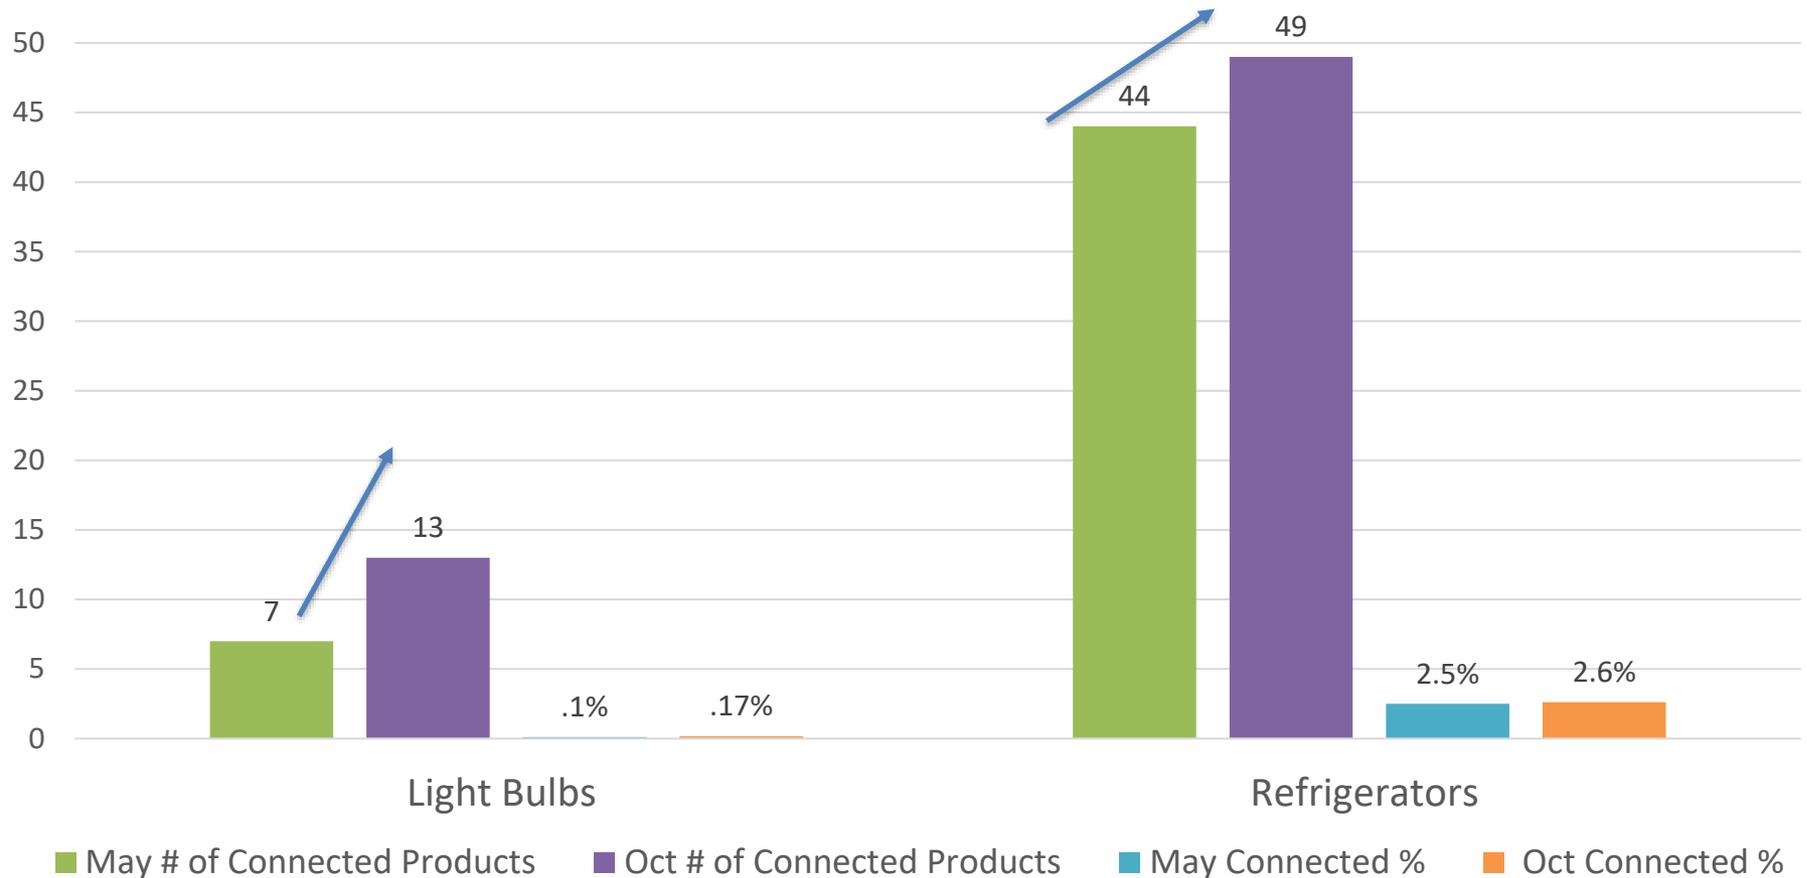

■ May # of Connected Products ■ Oct # of Connected Products ■ May Connected % ■ Oct Connected %

Many “smart” products in ENERGY STAR—and Growing!

ENERGY STAR Connected Product Trends

Breakout Activity

- Activity Instructions:
 1. Topic stations placed throughout the room
 2. Go to the topic station # you are interested in
 3. DISCUSS!!!
 4. (time dependent) Report out on discussion

Pick a Topic and Go!

Topic 1: R&D

What resources are needed to support development of energy savings features for connected home products, programs, or solutions?

Topic 2: Pilots

What pilots are needed to determine energy savings of connected home/product solutions?

Topic 3: Smart Lighting

How can the energy savings potential of connected lighting be determined?

Topic 4: EE & DR Integration

How can EE and DR programs integrate and cross-promotes each other under the connected umbrella?

Topic 5: Standby

What are the impacts, inputs, and phases in roadmapping lower standby power of connected products?

Report Out

Topic 1: Product / Service R&D

Topic 2: Utility Pilots

Topic 3: Lighting

Topic 4: Integration of EE & DR Promotions

Topic 5: Roadmap on Standby

POLL

Breakout session & wrap up

- Thank you!
- Lookout for continuing discussions via webinars